

Poised For Leadership

A roadmap for women who want to break into positions of responsibility, influence and leadership.

Designed for early-career to mid-level women who want to accelerate their transition into corporate leadership roles, this one-day seminar is led by Jo Miller, CEO of Women's Leadership Coaching Inc. (WLC).

Women's Leadership Coaching interviewed over 1,000 women about their leadership aspirations, the skills they wish to develop and the roadblocks they face. We uncovered a common set of challenges encountered by women wanting to advance their careers, and a specific set of skills necessary to break through those roadblocks.

The principles, processes and case studies employed by WLC to successfully coach women worldwide are now packaged into a high-impact, high-intensity seminar: Poised for Leadership.
