

WWLF Call for Nominations, 2017 Fellowship Program Award

The Women's Wireless Leadership Forum ("WWLF") is now accepting nominations for the 2017 Fellowship Program Award. This year WWLF has expanded the Fellowship Program and will be selecting two recipients. We are also currently accepting applications to serve as the 2017

Fellowship Mentors. The mission of the Fellowship Program is to empower and inspire women who are new to the telecommunications industry by:

- Providing WWLF membership advantages at no cost to the recipient
- Engaging the recipient in industry events and the operations of WWLF
- Offering unique mentorship opportunities to support the growth of new industry leaders
- Facilitating opportunities for career strengthening through WWLF resources

Benefits include:

- Complimentary WWLF membership for duration of term (If already a member when selected, the remainder of her pre-existing membership term will resume following completion of the Fellowship term)
- Featured on the WWLF website as Award winner
- Pairing with a Mentor for duration of term
- Participation in a WWLF Committee (to be selected by the WWLF Board)
- Free admission to two annual local regional events during term
- Free admission to WWLF events at CTIA and WIA during term
- All-expenses-paid trip to WIA (max value of $1,500)
- Discounted membership for one full year following award term

Fellowship Nominee Requirements:

- Nominee must be a woman
- Nominee must be employed in the wireless industry for LESS than 5 years, or entering the industry
- Nominee may be self-nominated or nominated by someone else
- Nominees may or may not be a current WWLF member at time of award
- Nominee cannot be chosen as a recipient for two consecutive years
- Consistently attend monthly one-on-one meetings with Mentor (either in-person or via phone)
